First Class Hunts 2012 Canadian Dollars

SPRING or FALL GRIZZLY

Huge boars emerge high in their alpine dens in April. These predators are on the immediate hunt for food and a mate. Hunting takes place in the high country using Quads or on rivers. The bears are always moving at this time of year, as the daylight is over 20 hours each day. Black bears can also be taken on this hunt. A beautiful time of year. Hunts are one on one with your grizzly guide. Cabins or tents, depending on area. Late winters can influence dates, so please call and we can schedule a date for the best grizzly hunting.

HUNT PRICE: $ 9 900 Grizzly trophy fee: $ 6900 Black Bear trophy fee: $ 1600
May 26-31 June 2-7

STONE SHEEP

Lone Wolf hunts Stones from the Pelly Mountains and the Cassiar Range. Color phases from dark black to light grey can be encountered. Horseback hunting gets you into some remote sheep areas one on one with your professional sheep guide. Stones as long as 45 6/8" and others with bases as large as 16 2/8" have been taken over the years. This hunt takes place in August or September. Back-pack hunting is also an option to get you into ranges where horses can't. All other species are available on this hunt on a trophy fee basis.

HUNT PRICE: Horseback $ 19 200 Backpack $ 17 150 Trophy fee: $7 500

ALASKA/YUKON MOOSE & MOUNTAIN CARIBOU COMBO HUNT

Some of the largest moose in the Yukon come from our 8000 square miles of hunting area. Our moose range from 55" to 72 1/2" width, with many being put into the B&C books every year. We offer hunts on horseback, riverboat, Quad, and remote lakes. This is the hunt where grizzly, mountain caribou, wolf, black bear, and wolverine are taken as well as moose.

Mountain Caribou are the largest bodied caribou in North America. Lone Wolf takes some record book 'boos' every season. Caribou are often taken along with a moose or grizzly on any of the fall dates mentioned below. If you are specifically after boos, later always seems to be better, as the rut brings the animals together in greater numbers. This is not to say that record book bulls aren't taken in August on a sheep hunt as well!

We offer all our fall hunts as multiple species hunts. Whether your priority is moose, caribou, sheep or grizzly, we can offer a hunt that works for your schedule. All fall hunt dates are listed below. The PACKAGE price includes: 8 day hunt incl. all meals; Aircharter to and from camp (1 day before and 1 day after the hunt), Hunting License, Tags, HPP (=Hunter Preservation Fee), GST., Wolf !!!

All animals (except wolf) are available on a plus-trophy-fee-base (trophy fees are listed below).

We average more than one animal per hunter, so it's a good chance that you'll take more than your intended species. Wolves and wolverines are taken on many falls hunts. We also customize your hunt combination!
